or for being only implicit, implied by DN's etc. That will come.

Four minor errors in calendrics in workbook from Austin 2009

Page 55 The date 9.4.16.13.3 given as 520 should be the year 531, or the intended Long Count was different.

Page 57 For Los Alacranes Stela 1, the time interval from birth to accession is 56 & 1/2 years, not 55 years.

Page 64 The date 9.8.17.14.14. should be 9.8.17.15.14.

Page 74 The period ending 9.12.5.0.0 given as 678 should be 677 A.D./C.E.

Page 75 An error in the glyphic text for 9.12.5.9.14. Perhaps made anciently by a Maya scribe?

The Calendar Round written as 3 Ix 16 Muwaan should be 2 Ix 17 Muwaan.

Clarification that the date printed 9.12.5.10.1 is the second of the two dates, the one 7 days later.

The current state of knowledge concerning Calakmul is a result of many efforts, including generations of archaeologists, art historians, epigraphers and others.

Special acknowledgement is due of course to Simon Martin, who first propounded the idea of two larger hegemonies (Calakmul and Tikal).

Responsibility for errors in the summaries of content above remains with the author of this document.

Responsibility for correct understandings of glyphic texts is to the greatest extent due to the many epigraphers who have worked on them, including many second-career specialists and devotees.

- Chan K'inich (of Calakmul) name appears
- 734 Yuknoom Took' K'awiil of Calakmul shown as bound prisoner
- 734 Accession of Yik'in Chan Chahk of Tikal ("Ruler B"), and period ending 9.15.5.0.0
- 736 (A king of El Peru installed under supervision of Yuknoom Took K'awiil ??? maybe not this stela)
- 736 A lord Wamaaw K'awiil appears, is identified as a Chiik Nahb Ajaw. Relation to Quirigua king is obscure.
Wamaaw K'awiil of Calakmul is one of two ballplayers, the other is the ruler of ?Hix Witz ("Cat hill")
- 741 Bat head occurs on Stela 59.
- 743 Tikal victory over El Peru, which then has no inscriptions for 47 years
- 744 Tikal victory over Naranjo. Naranjo was then silent for (?3 ?many) years except for Stela 36.
- 751 New ruler name, ... .. Na-Chan, "Bat" Emblem Glyph now appears instead of Serpent EG
- 751 Names king Bolon K'awiil as a Chiik Nahb Ajaw. Lost event just after ("behind") the 2 Ajaw period ending
Mentions lords of Caracol, Ixkun, and Calakmul [Date may be OK if reverse the 7 Sak & the 4 Sak ??]
- 766 Parentage for Bird Jaguar IV includes mother "Lady of Calakmul"
- 771 Mention of Bolon K'awiil
- 771 "Lady Pacal" of the "Bat" EG (Calakmul) arrives to marry current ruler
After 9.17.0.0.0, sites very close to Calakmul and formerly subject to it begin to erect their own stelas
So Oxpemul starting in 9.15.0.0.0; La Muñeca
- 789 A captive from Pomoy (Yomop?) is a vassal of Bolon K'awiil, a ruler of Calakmul
- 790
- 790
- 791 A fourth lady arrives in La Corona
- 800
- 810
- 820 (emblem glyph Kaan Ajaw-ya, presumably from Calakmul)
- 849 ... witnessed by Chan Pet (Seibal), by K'uhul Kaan Ajaw, and by others.
- 909 Later monuments are decadent. Stelas 84, 91. Calakmul Stela 17 was unfinished. So was Stela 62.

The following three dates are from a source or sources which I (L.A.) have lost track of.

The first and third are 5 days before a date with the same event. See in the main table above.

The second is one Winal before a date with the same event.

Are they simply errors in some transcription(s) ?

9 9 2 0 8	3 Lamat	11 Sotz'	615 May 10	Incorrect, should be 1 Sotz' rather see 9.9.2.0.9 as written, and (9.8.11.16.8) 3 Lamat 11 Sotz' as written two distinct dates
